PERAK MUSEUM
First Museum in Malaysia

1 PENGENALAN
INTRODUCTION

Muzium Perak merupakan antara institusi muzium yang terawal dibina di Asia Tenggara dan pertama di Malaysia. Muzium ini mempamerkan koleksi dan maklumat sejarah, kebudayaan serta alam semula jadi negara ini. Idea penubuhan Muzium Perak dicetuskan oleh Sir Hugh Low, Residen British ketiga di negeri Perak. Penubuhan muzium ini ketika itu sangat penting sebagai pusat pengumpulan dan penyelidikan adat resam serta budaya masyarakat tempatan bagi memudahkan pihak British mengenali dan memahami sosio budaya masyarakat di negara ini.

The Perak Museum was amongst the earliest museum in Southeast Asia and the first museum in Malaysia. It showcases collections and information on the country's history, culture and natural environment. The idea for the establishment of the Perak Museum was mooted by Sir Hugh Low, the third British Resident in Perak. It was built as a centre for the collection and research of the local culture, tradition and practices to enable the British to learn and understand about the society and culture of the people of this country.

2 KOLEKSI
COLLECTION

Kebanyakan koleksi terawal Muzium Perak ialah bahan-bahan etnologi dan antropologi. Kemudian, koleksi geologi, botani dan entomologi menjadi spesimen tambahannya. Antara koleksi terunggul Muzium Perak ialah koleksi tembikar yang kebanyakannya telah berusia lebih 100 tahun. Kebanyakan hasil buatan tembikar tersebut seperti labu, geluk, kendi dan terenang amat halus buatannya dan mempunyai nilai estetika. Koleksi skeleton haiwan seperti gajah, kuda, monyet, buaya, ular dan banyak lagi pula sangat menarik kerana bersifat lengkap dan merupakan koleksi terawal Muzium Perak.

Antara koleksi Orang Asli yang unik ialah sebuah tabung damak koleksi awal kurator Inggeris I.H.N.Evans. Turut dipamerkan koleksi peralatan cutam yang dihasilkan melalui proses pengoksidaan logam perak, tembaga dan plumbum. Ia merupakan hadiah peribadi Sir Frank Swettenham dan Raja negara Siam Raja Chulalongkorn.

Most of the Perak Museum's earliest collections comprised of ethnology and anthropology artefacts; geological, botanical and entomological specimens were later added to the collection. Amongst the museum's prominent collections is the pottery collection, most of which are over 100 years old. Most of the pottery, such as the labu, geduk, kendi and terenang are finely crafted and possess their own respective aesthetic values. The animal skeleton such as elephant, horse, monkey, crocodile, snake and many others are also particularly interesting as they are complete form and among the Perak Museum's earliest collections.

Among the unique collection of Orang Asli is a blow pipe dart containers, early collection of English curator I.H.N.Evans. There are also on display a collection of nielloware (cutam) produced through a process of oxidation of silver, copper and lead, which was personal gifts of Sir Frank Swettenham and by Siamese government during the reign of King Chulalongkorn.
